

The Indiana Telephone Privacy law has given our family treasured quality time in the day and night by eliminating unwanted phone calls from telemarketers. It would be a shame if the Indiana law was overridden. Please support the Indiana law as it now exists. Thank you.